

Corrections/Clarifications/Updates to the *It's Your Choice: Reference Guide

If you are covered under the Wisconsin Public Employer's Group Health Insurance Program, please note the following corrections/clarifications updates to your It's Your Choice: Reference Guide (ET-2128r-12). (Note: These errors appear only in the paper version of this guide. The electronic version found on the Department of Employee Trust Funds (ETF) Internet site is correct.) ETF always strives to provide the most complete and accurate information possible so that you make informed health insurance coverage decisions. We apologize for any inconvenience this change may cause.

If you need additional information regarding your benefits and participating providers, contact the health plan or pharmacy benefit manager. For questions regarding applications, eligibility, enrollment, and general information, contact ETF toll-free at 1-877-533-5020 or (608) 266-3285 (local Madison).

Wisconsin Public Employers (Local) Employees, Annuitants and Continuants:

- On page 67, item 3., b., in the definition of Dependent has had language removed. The language now reads: "After attaining age 26, as required by Wis. Stat. § 632.885, a Dependent includes a child that is a full-time student, regardless of age, who was called to federal active duty when the child was under the age of 27 years and while the child was attending, on a full-time basis, an institution of higher education."
