Important Medicare Information

You and/or your insured dependents must be enrolled for both portions of Medicare (Hospital Part A and Medical Part B), when first eligible. Contact the Social Security Administration for information on how to enroll.

- Please note that premiums can only be adjusted in accordance with the contract.
- You must inform ETF by phone or in writing immediately if you or your insured dependent's Medicare Part B is dropped for any reason.
- If you and/or your insured dependents do not enroll for Medicare Parts A and B, when first eligible, you will be liable for the portion of claims that Medicare would have paid beginning on the date Medicare coverage would have become effective.
- You and/or your dependents are not required to be enrolled in Medicare until the subscriber terminates employment or health insurance coverage received while actively employed.

Where to find your Medicare number and effective dates:

Important Information for state employees and retirees currently enrolled in an HDHP (High Deductible Health Plan) policy:

- When you, the subscriber, is enrolled in Medicare Part A and/or Part B you are no longer eligible to remain in the HDHP policy.
 - Your health contract will be changed to the non-HDHP policy effective on the first of the month in which you are first enrolled in any part of Medicare.
- If your spouse or dependent on your family policy is enrolled in any part of Medicare, you are not required to change your policy to a non-HDHP policy.
 - Your health contract will remain in the HDHP policy and changed to a Medicare Family 1 coverage level.
