This graph is intended to show generally the anticipated relationship between various asset classes and the corresponding funds within each asset class available through your plan. Please note this is not intended to predict an actual level of return or risk for these funds. The historical returns and risk for these funds may vary significantly from the linear relationship represented above. Please refer to the funds' prospectuses and shareholder reports for actual return information.

Generally, the asset allocation of each target date fund will change on an annual basis with the asset allocation becoming more conservative as the fund nears the target retirement date. The target date is the approximate date when investors plan to start withdrawing their money.

The principal value of the fund(s) in a plan's lineup is not guaranteed at any time, including at the time of target date and/or withdrawal.

INVESTMENT OVERVIEW

The investment seeks to track the performance of a benchmark index that measures the investment return of large-capitalization stocks. The fund employs an indexing investment approach designed to track the performance of the Standard & Poor's 500 Index, a widely recognized benchmark of U.S. stock market performance that is dominated by the stocks of large U.S. companies. It attempts to replicate the target index by investing all, or substantially all, of its assets in the stocks that make up the index, holding each stock in approximately the same proportion as its weighting in the index.

Stable Value – Key Concepts

■ Book Value Wrap Contract:

- A stable value contract issued by insurance companies and/or banks that guarantees:
 - preservation of principal and accumulated interest
 - payment of an interest rate for a specified period of time
 - participant-initiated withdrawals and transfers at book value

■ Benefit Responsiveness:

The responsibility of the investment contracts to pay defined contribution plan benefits at book value.

■ GICs (Guaranteed Investment Contract):

A group annuity insurance contract that pays a specified rate of return for a specified period of time. This type of contract offers book value accounting, typically pays benefits to plan participants, and provides annuities upon request.

■ Wrapped Assets:

A term for a variety of stable value products which separate the invested portfolio from the benefit responsive contract. The assets backing the contract, usually high-grade securities, are owned by the plan and held in a trust account or custody account for the plan. The plan sponsor relies on the credit of the wrap issuer to support the book value guarantee.

■ Blended Rate:

The aggregate return of the book value investments in a stable value fund.

■ Crediting Rate:

The interest rate calculated for wrapped assets expressed as an “effective annual yield”. The formula reflects the portfolio’s current yield with an adjustment for amortization of the difference between the portfolio market and book value. The crediting rate may remain fixed for the term of the contract or may be reset at predetermined intervals.

- Standard & Poor's 500 - A market capitalization-weighted index of 500 widely held stocks often used as a proxy for the stock market. Standard and Poor's chooses the member companies for the 500 based on market size, liquidity and industry group representation. Included are the stocks of industrial, financial, utility, and transportation companies. Since mid-1989, this composition has been more flexible and the number of issues in each sector has varied. The returns presented for the S&P 500 are total returns, including the reinvestment of dividends each month.
- Standard & Poor's 400 - Includes approximately 10% of the capitalization of U.S. equity securities. The index is comprised of stocks in the middle capitalization range. At the original time of screening, this was a $200 million to $5 billion market value range. Any mid cap stocks already included in the S&P 500 are excluded from this index, which started on December 31, 1990. The level of the index reflects the total market value of all 400 component stocks relative to this date. A level of 135, for example, indicates that the market value of the index portfolio has risen 35% from December 31, 1990. The S&P 400 figure is presented as a total return.
- Standard & Poor's Target Date Index Series - The S&P Target Date Index Series comprises eleven multi-asset class indices, each corresponding to a particular target retirement date. The asset allocation for each index in the series is determined once a year through survey of large fund management companies that offer target date products. Each index is fully investable, with varying levels of exposure to equities, fixed income and commodities.

Compared to higher rated securities, high yield bond investment options are subject to greater risk, including the risk of default.

A bond fund's yield, share price and total return change daily and are based on changes in interest rates, market conditions, economic and political news, and the quality and maturity of its investments. In general, bond prices fall when interest rates rise and vice versa.

Certain underlying funds invest in inflation protected bonds ("TIPS"). Unlike conventional bonds, the principal or interest of TIPS is adjusted periodically to a specified rate of inflation (e.g., Consumer Price Index for all Urban Consumers [CPI-U]). There can be no assurance that the inflation index used will accurately measure the actual rate of inflation.

The date in a target date fund's name represents an approximate date when an investor is expected to retire (which is assumed to be at age 65) and/or begins withdrawing money. The principal value of the funds is not guaranteed at any time, including the target date. For more information, please refer to the fund prospectus and/or disclosure document. A target date fund will gradually shift its emphasis from more aggressive investments to more conservative ones based on its target date (which is the assumed retirement date for an investor).

The JPMCB SmartRetirement Funds indirectly bear their proportionate share of the operating expenses of any underlying funds in which they may invest (excluding management fees and service fees).

The Trustee of the JPMCB SmartRetirement Funds agrees to reimburse the Fund for such fund operating expenses, and/or to waive a portion of the Trustee's management fee, to the extent that the fund's total annual operating expenses (excluding management fees, service fees, underlying fund fees attributable to dividend and interest expenses on short sales, interest, expenses related to litigation and potential litigation, and extraordinary expenses not incurred in the ordinary course of the Fund's business) exceeds 0.04% of the Fund's average daily new assets through the expense cap expiration date.

The price of equity securities may rise or fall because of changes in the broad market or changes in a company's financial condition, sometimes rapidly or unpredictably. These price movements may result from factors affecting individual companies, sectors or industries selected for the Fund's portfolio or the securities market as a whole, such as changes in economic or political conditions. Equity securities are subject to "stock market risk" meaning that stock prices in general (or in particular, the prices of the types of securities in which a fund invests) may decline over short or extended periods of time. When the value of a fund's securities goes down, an investment in a fund decreases in value.
