This graph is intended to show generally the anticipated relationship between various asset classes and the corresponding funds within each asset class available through your plan. Please note this is not intended to predict an actual level of return or risk for these funds. The historical returns and risk for these funds may vary significantly from the linear relationship represented above. Please refer to the funds' prospectuses and shareholder reports for actual return information.

Generally, the asset allocation of each target date fund will change on an annual basis with the asset allocation becoming more conservative as the fund nears the target retirement date. The target date is the approximate date when investors plan to start withdrawing their money.

The principal value of the fund(s) in a plan's lineup is not guaranteed at any time, including at the time of target date and/or withdrawal.

Fund Analysis

Please consider the investment objectives, risks, fees and expenses carefully before investing. The prospectus contains this and other information about the investment options. Depending on the investment options offered in your Plan, your registered representative can provide you with prospectuses for any mutual funds; any applicable annuity contracts and the annuity's underlying funds; and/or disclosure documents for investment options exempt from SEC registration. Please read them carefully before investing.

Past performance is not indicative of future results. Performance includes the reinvestment of any income. Returns will fluctuate; and an investment upon redemption may be worth more or less than its original value. Current performance may be higher or lower than the performance data shown. For up-to-date month end performance information please call 800-345-2345.

Rankings provided based on total return.

Summary

U.S. Economy

- U.S. real GDP increased at an annual rate of 1.1% in the first quarter of 2016 compared to 1.4% in the fourth quarter 2015 and 2.0% in the third quarter
- Job growth, overall, has been underwhelming, creating less than 200,000 new jobs in four of the last six months
- Given the mixed economic data and overall volatility that the financial market has experienced to date in 2016, the Fed has maintained their benchmark rate of 0.25% for the past four meetings

U.S. Markets

- Despite significant global events in 2016 so far, the U.S stock market (as represented by the S&P 500 Index) ended the second quarter up 2.5%
- Brexit caused some initial volatility upon the announcement of the referendum results, but the S&P 500 index bounced back shortly thereafter. Year-to-date return is at 3.8%
- The Barclays U.S Aggregate Bond Index saw a dip in performance versus its first quarter numbers, posting a return of 2.2% for the quarter

Global Economy

- Brexit sent shockwaves across the global economy with its vote to leave the EU, notably sending Germany's 10-year Government bonds into negative territory for the first time in history.
- Most global banks' monetary policies remain unchanged. The United States remains the only developed market that is tightening
- Relative interest rates and recent currency exchange rate volatility continue to drive foreign investment flows into the U.S capital markets

Global Markets

- Developed equity markets (as represented by the MSCI EAFE Index) realized a total return of -1.5% during the second quarter of the year
- Emerging markets (as represented by the MSCI Emerging Markets Index) remained in positive territory for the quarter, generating a total return of 0.7%

The Citigroup 3-Month T-Bill Index – The Citigroup 3-Month T-Bill Index is an unmanaged index that is generally representative of 3-month Treasury bills and consists of an average of the last 3-month U.S. Treasury Bill issues.

The JPMorgan Emerging Markets Bond Index Global tracks total returns for traded external debt instruments in the emerging markets, and is an expanded version of the JPMorgan EMBI+. As with the EMBI, the EMBI Global includes U.S. dollar-denominated Brady bonds, loans, and Eurobonds with an outstanding face value of at least $500 million. It covers more of the eligible instruments than the EMBI+ by relaxing somewhat the strict EMBI + limits on secondary market trading liquidity.

The Barclays US TIPS Index includes all publicly issued, U.S. Treasury inflation-protected securities that have at least one year remaining to maturity, are rated investment grade, and have $250 million or more of outstanding face value.

The Dow Jones U.S. Select REIT Index intends to measure the performance of publicly traded REITs and REIT-like securities. The index is a subset of the Dow Jones U.S. Select Real Estate Securities Index (RESI), which represents equity real estate investment trusts (REITs) and real estate operating companies (REOCs) traded in the U.S.

The FTSE EPRA/NAREIT Developed ex US Index is a subset of the FTSE EPRA/NAREIT Developed Index and is designed to track the performance of listed real estate companies and REITS.

Glossary

- Alpha Risk-adjusted excess return of a fund over its benchmark. A positive alpha number means that the fund is generating excess return relative to its expected excess return.
- Beta A measure of a fund's volatility compared to its benchmark. A beta of 1.1 indicates that the fund is 10% more volatile than its benchmark.
- Duration A common gauge of the price sensitivity of a fixed income asset or portfolio to a change in interest rates.
- Expense ratio A measure of a fund's overall expenses.
- Investment policy A fund's stated investment objectives and operating policy.
- \mathbf{R}^2 The percentage of the variability in the returns of one investment that can be associated with the variability in the returns of its applicable benchmark.
- Risk Refers to performance volatility, or the probability of not meeting the specified investment objectives.
- Sharpe Ratio Measures return per unit of risk assumed. It is calculated by subtracting the risk free return from the total return of the fund and dividing it by the fund's risk level (standard deviation).
- Standard Deviation A measure of dispersion which determines how much the values within it differ from the mean.
- Trailing Period A snap shot of a specific period of time. A 1-year trailing return represents the previous 12month period.

Stable Value – Key Concepts

Book Value Wrap Contract:

- A stable value contract issued by insurance companies and/or banks that guarantees:
 - preservation of principal and accumulated interest
 - · payment of an interest rate for a specified period of time
 - participant-initiated withdrawals and transfers at book value

Benefit Responsiveness:

The responsibility of the investment contracts to pay defined contribution plan benefits at book value.

GICs (Guaranteed Investment Contract):

A group annuity insurance contract that pays a specified rate of return for a specified period of time. This type of contract offers book value accounting, typically pays benefits to plan participants, and provides annuities upon request.

Wrapped Assets:

A term for a variety of stable value products which separate the invested portfolio from the benefit responsive contract. The assets backing the contract, usually high-grade securities, are owned by the plan and held in a trust account or custody account for the plan. The plan sponsor relies on the credit of the wrap issuer to support the book value guarantee.

Blended Rate:

The aggregate return of the book value investments in a stable value fund.

Crediting Rate:

The interest rate calculated for wrapped assets expressed as an "effective annual yield". The formula reflects the portfolio's current yield with an adjustment for amortization of the difference between the portfolio market and book value. The crediting rate may remain fixed for the term of the contract or may be reset at predetermined intervals.

- Salomon Smith Barney Broad Investment Grade (BIG) Index The BIG Index is market-capitalization weighted and includes fixed-rate Treasury, Government-sponsored, mortgage, and investment-grade corporates (BBB-/Baa3) with a maturity of one year or longer. The minimum amount outstanding for the U.S. Treasury issues is $1 billion and mortgage issues is $5 billion per coupon, $250 million per origination year generics for both entry and exit. For Government-sponsored and corporate issues, the entry and exit amounts are $100 million.
- Standard & Poor's 500 A market capitalization-weighted index of 500 widely held stocks often used as a proxy for the stock market. Standard and Poor's chooses the member companies for the 500 based on market size, liquidity and industry group representation. Included are the stocks of industrial, financial, utility, and transportation companies. Since mid-1989, this composition has been more flexible and the number of issues in each sector has varied. The returns presented for the S&P 500 are total returns, including the reinvestment of dividends each month.
- Standard & Poor's 400 Includes approximately 10% of the capitalization of U.S. equity securities. The index is comprised of stocks in the middle capitalization range. At the original time of screening, this was a $200 million to $5 billion market value range. Any mid cap stocks already included in the S&P 500 are excluded from this index, which started on December 31, 1990. The level of the index reflects the total market value of all 400 component stocks relative to this date. A level of 135, for example, indicates that the market value of the index portfolio has risen 35% from December 31, 1990. The S&P 400 figure is presented as a total return.
- Standard & Poor's Target Date Index Series The S&P Target Date Index Series comprises eleven multi-asset class indices, each corresponding to a particular target retirement date. The asset allocation for each index in the series is determined once a year through survey of large fund management companies that offer target date products. Each index is fully investable, with varying levels of exposure to equities, fixed income and commodities.

Compared to higher rated securities, high yield bond investment options are subject to greater risk, including the risk of default.

A bond fund's yield, share price and total return change daily and are based on changes in interest rates, market conditions, economic and political news, and the quality and maturity of its investments. In general, bond prices fall when interest rates rise and vice versa.

Certain underlying funds invest in inflation protected bonds ("TIPS"). Unlike conventional bonds, the principal or interest of TIPS is adjusted periodically to a specified rate of inflation (e.g., Consumer Price Index for all Urban Consumers [CPI-U]). There can be no assurance that the inflation index used will accurately measure the actual rate of inflation.

The date in a target date fund's name represents an approximate date when an investor is expected to retire (which is assumed to be at age 65) and/or begins withdrawing money. The principal value of the funds is not guaranteed at any time, including the target date. For more information, please refer to the fund prospectus and/or disclosure document. A target date fund will gradually shift its emphasis from more aggressive investments to more conservative ones based on its target date (which is the assumed retirement date for an investor).

Asset allocation and balanced investment options and models are subject to the risks of the underlying funds, which can be a mix of stocks/stock funds and bonds/bond funds. For more information, see the prospectus and/or disclosure documents.

The value of commodity-linked investments may be affected by financial factors, political developments and natural disasters. As such, investment options that invest primarily in commodities may experience greater volatility than investments in traditional securities.

Equity securities of small and mid-sized companies may be more volatile than securities of larger, more established companies.

Real estate securities and trusts involve greater risks than other non-diversified investments, including but not limited to: declining property values, varying economic conditions, changes in zoning laws, or losses from casualty. Real estate securities that invest in foreign real estate involve additional risk, including currency fluctuations and political developments.

Investment return and principal value of a variable investment will fluctuate so that an investor's shares when redeemed, may be worth more or less than the original cost.

The JPMCB SmartRetirement Funds indirectly bear their proportionate share of the operating expenses of any underlying funds in which they may invest (excluding management fees and service fees).

The Trustee of the JPMCB SmartRetirement Funds agrees to reimburse the Fund for such fund operating expenses, and/or to waive a portion of the Trustee's management fee, to the extent that the fund's total annual operating expenses (excluding management fees, service fees, underlying fund fees attributable to dividend and interest expenses on short sales, interest, expenses related to litigation and potential litigation, and extraordinary expenses not incurred in the ordinary course of the Fund's business) exceeds 0.04% of the Fund's average daily new assets through the expense cap expiration date.

The price of equity securities may rise or fall because of changes in the broad market or changes in a company's financial condition, sometimes rapidly or unpredictably. These price movements may result from factors affecting individual companies, sectors or industries selected for the Fund's portfolio or the securities market as a whole, such as changes in economic or political conditions. Equity securities are subject to "stock market risk" meaning that stock prices in general (or in particular, the prices of the types of securities in which a fund invests) may decline over short or extended periods of time. When the value of a fund's securities goes down, an investment in a fund decreases in value.
