Employees Served

- Small local employers serve anywhere from 1 to 50 employees.
- 62% have fewer than 10 employees.

Benefits Offered

- Small local employers are more likely to offer Health Insurance than large locals. 383 (40%) of them offer Health Insurance.
- The most popular program option is P02 (It's Your Choice Local Traditional with Dental Option), followed closely by P12 (same program without dental).

Towns
Villages
Small Cities
Hospitals
Sewer districts and other
misc. small employers

How They Work

- Small employers often use ETF's user interfaces to report new hires, terminations, and service and earnings data.
- Small employers often have only one employee tasked with WRS reporting to ETF, and they have greater levels of turnover in their HR/Payroll/Admin staff. Thus, their staff using ETF systems often have little to no experience in benefit administration, creating the need for frequent training and re-training.

By the Numbers

946 employers in this segment

8,321 active members served

Note: Does not include any school districts, state agencies, UW, or UWHC
