COURT CASES HANDLED BY DOJ

Case No. 1:

Issue – Which party is entitled under the applicable law to the life insurance and retirement death benefits of the deceased WRS member?

Summary – The wife and sister of the deceased have been involved in litigation to determine who is legally entitled to the life insurance and retirement death benefits. ETF was named as a defendant in an effort to prevent the death benefits from being paid. ETF informed the parties and the court that no payments will be made until the case is resolved.

Status – On October 8, 2014, the trial court judge issued a final judgment. It orders the establishment of two trusts to be funded with life insurance proceeds: 1) $110,000 educational trust for the wife, and 2) $100,000 educational and medical trust for the daughter of the sister. All remaining life insurance proceeds and the deceased's entire WRS retirement account were awarded to the sister as a survivor. On November 21, 2014, the wife appealed the decision in the Wisconsin Court of Appeals – District 3. The Court of Appeals issued a decision, dated April 19, 2016, which overruled the trial court and awarded the entire life insurance and retirement death benefit to the member's sister. The case will not be reviewed by the Wisconsin Supreme Court. It is now closed.

Attorney – DOJ attorney.

Case No. 2:

Issue – ETF provided income continuation insurance benefits and long term disability benefits following plaintiff's involvement in an automobile accident and seeks repayment for those payments made.

Summary – ETF was named a defendant in a Winnebago County Circuit Court case in which the plaintiff seeks damages for personal injuries sustained in the accident and a determination of ETF's subrogation interest.

Status – On May 13, 2016, the court was notified that the case settled. It is now closed.

Attorney – DOJ attorney.

Case No. 3:

Issue – ETF provided income continuation insurance benefits and long term disability benefits following personal injuries sustained by the plaintiff as a result of alleged negligence by a chiropractor and seeks repayment for those payments made.

WPS SUBROGATION CASES

WPS has retained private counsel to handle these cases, and no ETF or DOJ attorney is involved. There are four cases pending in which GIB or ETF has a subrogation interest in a court action filed by a WRS member because ETF provided benefits to that member following a personal injury.

Staff will be available at the board meeting to answer questions.
