

Changing Health Plans 101

Life Events

Jake Spielbauer

Employer Trainer, Employer Services Section

Learning Objectives

Define Health Plans

Describe Reasons to Change

Define Health Plans

Define Health Plans

Insurance
company

Network of
doctors,
hospitals,
and clinics

Regionally focused

Uniform
Benefits (except
Medicare
Plus)

Describe Reasons to Change Health Plans

Reasons to Change Health Plans

Open
Enrollment

Moving

Getting Married

Getting Divorced

Birth or Adopting a Child

Paternity or Guardianship

NOTE: See ETF's website for Life Events guide for more details

Moving

Move from current plan's service area
(three month minimum)

Application (ET-2301) required within 30 days before or after moving

Documentation sometimes required

- Health plan application (ET-2301)
- Correspondence with effective date

Effective date = 1st month after application receipt

Getting Married

Application (ET-2301) required within 30 days

Documentation sometimes required:

- Marriage certificate

Effective date = 1st month after application receipt

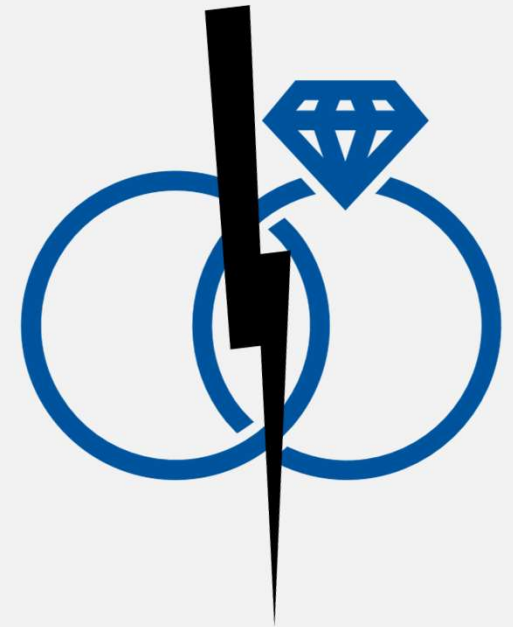

Getting Divorced

Application (ET-2301) required within 30 days

Documentation required

- Divorce decree (EE to ER)
- Copy COBRA offer (ER to ETF)

Effective date = 1st month after application receipt

Birth or Adopting a Child

Application (ET-2301) required within 30 days (to change plans)

Documentation required

- Birth certificate (single)
- Court order or letter of placement

Effective date = 1st month after application receipt

Paternity or Guardianship

Application (ET-2301) required within 30 days (to change plans)

Documentation required:

- Court order or voluntary paternity acknowledgement

Effective date = 1st month after application receipt

Thank you

wi_etf

etf.wi.gov

ETF E-mail Updates

608-266-3285
1-877-533-5020